A Good Word FOR LOCAL PAPERS. -You might nearly as well forget your churches, your weadenies bid school-houses as forget your local paper. It speaks to ton times the audience that your local minister does. It is read engerly each week from begining to end. It reaches you all, and if it has a lower spirit and less wisdom than a sermon, it has a thousand times better chance at you. Laying, as it does, on every table, in almost every house, you owe it to yourself to rally liberally to its support, and exact from it as able, high-toned character as you do from any educator in your midst. It is in no sense beneath your notice the amended School Law. It will and care-unless you yourself are beneath notice and care—for it is in the summation of the importance, interest and welfare of you all. It is the aggregate of your own consequence, and you cannot ignore it without miserably depreciating youractvon.
